DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1855.

THE NEWS.

The steamer Canada arrived at Halifax yesterday morning, and the steamer St. Louis rounded her dock at New York on the same morning. There is a small reduction in the price of breadstuffs. The news by these arrivals is to be found in the telegraphic dispatches of this morning's paper. The Ohio was almost iced up.

The Daniel Webster arrived at New Orleans on the 24th with California dates to the 8th ult. She brought a vast amount of gold.

REMARKABLE DEATH.

The Times, the Richmond organ of this city, thus speaks of the Presidency. [Quere? Ed.]

The Presidency! Low! We know not whether to be grateful that it was not, or sorry with redoubled intensity that it was not. In the Legislature, every Republican and Whig voted for the man, and the friend of the Democracy, and in the Democracy, opposed it.

What, then, is the matter with the people for that matter? Is the Democracy dead? Is it dead, and has it ceased to exist? Is it the only party in the universe that is divorced from its principles? Is it the only party that has no principles to unite it? Is it, then, of intelligence so high that because he is a Democrat he is to be the unanimous choice of all Democrats, and it will cry treason then that it is not? Is it, then, so much above principle that it can dispense with it?

At this present time, in our city, in the Democratic party is almost a perfect war to arms of 2000 men, and that war has been aroused by the question of the Presidency. The Democrats of Germany and they are, in the aggregate, the leading, intellectual, educated, enterprising, morally temperate, and thrifty,—a class of population which we are proud to welcome to live with the native, and responsibilities of our country, and which we are glad to see is likely to remain in this country—are almost as one on the Irish question. The Democrats of Irish birth, or descent, are almost as one on the Irish question. The Americans people are apt to form their opinions of the Germans just as they do in the case of the Irish. It is a most grievous error, and one which will cause it to be a new fight, with the people of Massachusetts. No, sorry is the hour for the Democracy, even if it shall, in the end, succeed in the election of its candidate. Just as it is in the Protestant Irish.

It is a notorious fact that Orangemen of the North of Ireland are almost as true to the Irish Catholic Democracy as the Irish Catholics themselves. And that is saying a great deal more than it would be in the case of Americans. And the Protestant Irish, the Scotch, English, Swedes and Norwegians, who had been thought of Know Nothingism? Are they? But the German Catholics trust their politics, Philosophy, and many of the American Democrats are almost as true to the Irish Catholic Democracy as the Irish

TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Trial of John and Jeremiah Mahaffey, for the Murder of Abbaylee Van Alstein.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY.

THURSDAY MORNING.

John Atkinson, sworn.—Was at McCarthy's the night of the murder. Had seen Van Alstein in the house. A few minutes after saw John and Jerry McCarty at the door. Heard them in the entry; then there was nothing in their hands then.—When I first saw them they had in their hands Van Alstein's overcoat and hat. Saw Van Alstein after left the house. I did not see him until he was dead. Heard somebody else cow-yard, as I looked out and saw Van Alstein dying. Saw the prisoners, Jerry and John, on the ground. Did not suppose or meddle of any kind.

Heard cries and saw all went towards the cow-yard, and then all came back and sat down. We had heard there was a dead man and went out again. Found Van Alstein dying. Saw the prisoners, Jerry and John, on the ground. Did not suppose or meddle of any kind.

Jerry and John were both in the cow-yard. Heard Van Alstein say, "Jerry, you have killed me!" Jerry and John were both in the cow-yard when Van Alstein said
